PART ONE

1. Preamble

We, the membership of the Yellowknives Dene wish to declare as follows:

- It is the inalienable right of all people to control their own destiny in a process of self-determination
- That the Yellowknives Dene are distinct peoples with a common history, culture, territory and government;
- That the Yellowknives Dene have retained our inherent natural right to survive and function as a Dene Nation coming from our Creator;
- We confirm that our Dene Nation was organized into our own form of government with laws which established, empowered or regulated our institutions of government;
- We confirm our jurisdiction over the manner in which our elected representatives are chosen and the manner in which they are chosen remains a prerogative of the Yellowknives Dene in accordance with our laws and traditions;
- We confirm our status as a Nation with all rights and privileges accorded to a Nation and as confirmed by Section 35 of the Canadian Constitution Act of 1982;
- This Election Code, once enacted and ratified by the members of the Yellowknives Dene First Nation, affirms our right to control our own destiny and confirms our status as an independent Dene First Nation.

This Election Code shall be known as EKETEHTSO NA'OWO.

 - ii. is at least twenty-one (21) years of age;
 - iii. has satisfied members of council of their ability to satisfactorily conduct the election process in a fair and impartial manner.
- d. The electoral officer is responsible for managing and executing all pre-electoral, electoral and post-electoral processes and procedures included in this Code. The electoral officer must, as a condition of his or her position, agree in writing that:
 - i. they will uphold and abide by the rules and regulations established in this Code;
 - ii. agree to refrain from providing any preferential treatment or

- expressing support for or opposition to any candidate;
- iii. not discriminate against anyone because of race, religion, sex, age or handicap;
- iv. agree to use their position and authority solely for the purpose of fulfilling the requirements of their position and not for personal or other benefit;
- v. declare at any time any personal or other interest that may appear to cause or may cause a conflict of interest.

7. Duties of Electoral Officer

- a. The electoral officer shall have the authority and the responsibility to carry out all the duties of this Election Policy in order to conduct an election in accordance with this Election Policy plus such other duties specified by Band Council Resolution appointing the electoral officer and which duties include but are not limited to:
 - i. the appointment and supervision of a deputy electoral officer, voting clerks, interpreters and other electoral assistants as required;
 - ii. advertising the election date, voting hours and voting stations;
 - iii. establish and advertise the opening and closing of nominations; the date, place and hours of advanced voting and any other important election information;
 - iv. preparing, posting and revising if necessary, an updated voters' list based on current Yellowknives Dene First Nation membership information; and, supervising the nominations, balloting and appeal processes according to the terms of this Election Code;
 - vi. remain neutral and professional in the conduct of the duties of his or her office and refrain from providing any preferential treatment or expressing support for or opposition to any candidate.

8. Duties of Deputy Electoral Officer

- a. Carrying out the duties as assigned to him or her by the electoral officer;
- b. Assuming the duties of the electoral officer, if for any reason, the electoral officer resigns or is unable to complete his or her duties;

- c. To supervise and train, if necessary, such other electoral assistants, voting clerks or others, employed for the purposes of assisting the electoral officer and deputy electoral officer in the effective running of the election and operation of the voting stations.
9. Council, shall at the time of the appointment of the electoral officer, establish a budget for the purposes of running the election and shall further pass a resolution, directing the Human Resources Department, to hire, establish a pay grid for, and make the necessary arrangements for the payment of such other assistants as may be required by the electoral officer, to conduct the election in a proper and efficient manner.

PART FIVE- VOTER'S LIST AND REGISTER OF MEMBERS

10. At least ninety (90) days before the date set for an election, the electoral officer shall obtain and compile a list of members who are eligible to vote. The list shall consist of all members of the Yellowknives Dene First Nation who are eighteen (18) years of age or over on election day. The list shall contain at the very least the following information:
- a. A member's date of birth, or if unknown, obtain satisfactory evidence that establishes that they will be at least eighteen (18) years of age by the date set for the vote;
 - b. The band membership number for each voter;
 - c. The mailing address for each voter as shown on the records of band membership;
 - d. Such additional information as requested by the Electoral Officer in order to establish either the identity or eligibility of a member, if deemed necessary by the Electoral Officer.
11. The administration of the Yellowknives Dene First Nation shall assist wherever possible the electoral officer in the completion of his or her duties in the compilation of the electors' list and will provide such information as is available for that purpose. Any personal information, provided to the electoral officer will be used solely for the purpose of providing notices, mail-in ballots or other election documents to electors who are entitled to receive them under this election code.

12. The electoral officer shall post within eighty-five (85) days of the date set for the election, a complete copy of the voters' list, this Election Policy, a Notice of the date of the election and a Notice of the date for the close of nominations in the following locations:
 - a. The band office in Ndilo;
 - b. The band office in Dettah;
 - c. Such other locations as the electoral officer deems necessary.
13. The electoral officer must also cause to be published in a local newspaper, notice of the date of the election and notice of the date of the close of nominations and further, providing a notice as to where the voters' lists are posted and directing that any members who are not included on the voters' list and who wish to so be included have a period of ten (10) days after publication to notify the electoral officer of their desire to be placed on the voters' list. "
14. The electoral officer shall also send, to all non-resident voters (not resident in Chief Drygeese Territory) at the address shown on the records of the band membership list confirming the date of the election, the date for the close of nominations and a nomination form, in the form prescribed by this Code along with a copy of the provisions relating to the nomination process to each non-resident voter, such that they may partake in the nomination process.
15. The electoral officer shall revise the voters' list upon presentation of documentary evidence which demonstrates that:
 - a. The name of an elector has been omitted from the voters' list;
 - b. The name of an elector is incorrectly set out in the voters' list; or
 - c. The name of a person not qualified to vote is included in the voters' list.
16. Notwithstanding paragraph 14, a person, or an elector, may no later than sixty (60) days prior to the date on which an election is to be held, demonstrate that the name of an elector has been omitted from or incorrectly set out in the voters' list by presenting in writing to the electoral officer evidence that the elector:

- a. Is entitled to have his or her name entered on or omitted from the Band List; and as a result is entitled to or not entitled to vote in Band elections;
 - b. Will be at least eighteen (18) years of age on the date on which the election is to be held; and
 - c. Is qualified to vote in band elections.
17. Where the electoral officer believes or has sufficient information that a person who is entitled to vote has been omitted from the voters' list, the electoral officer shall add the name of that person to the voters' list.
18. A person may demonstrate that the name of a person not qualified to vote has been included in the voters' list by presenting in writing to the electoral officer evidence that the person:
- a. Is neither on the band list nor entitled to have his or her name entered on the band list;
 - b. Will not be at least eighteen (18) years of age on the date on which the election is to be held; or
 - c. Is not qualified to vote in band elections.
19. Where the electoral officer believes or has information that a person whose name is on the voters' list is not a proper elector, or where, in accordance with the previous section, an elector demonstrates to the electoral officer that the name of a person not qualified to vote appears on the voters' list, the electoral officer shall give written notice to the person whose eligibility is challenged at least fifty-five (55) days prior to the date on which the election is to be held.
20. Any such notice given under the previous section, shall include the reasons for seeking the removal of the name from the voters' list and any supporting documents, and shall provide notice that a written reply may be sent to the electoral officer, which must be received no later than forty-five (45) days prior to the date on which the election is to be held.
21. After considering all of the information, written documentation and any representations relating to changes to the voters' list, the electoral officer shall within fifteen (15) days of giving the notice add or delete names from the voters' list based on whether or not in the opinion of the electoral officer that individual qualifies as an elector and shall so advise the elector of that decision.

22. The decision of the electoral officer is final and is not subject to appeal.
23. A person whose name does not appear on the voters' list and who has not been previously advised by the electoral officer that they are not eligible to be an elector, may be entitled to vote on election day, providing that elector presents sufficient documentary proof to the electoral officer on or before voting day such that the electoral officer, in his or her sole discretion, is satisfied that person is a proper elector and should have been included on the list of eligible electors. Any documentation so provided, shall be retained by the electoral officer pending any appeals of the election process and on expiration of any appeals, or upon expiration of any time limits set for the filing of an appeal, shall then be destroyed.

PART SIX-NOMINATION PROCESS

24. Nominations

- a. Only voters as defined in Part 4 are eligible to nominate candidates for any position. An individual may not nominate themselves for the position of either Chief or Councillor.
- b. Each voter may nominate only one candidate for the position of Chief but may nominate as many candidates as there are vacant positions for Councillors.
- c. Any voter who wishes to nominate an individual shall request from the electoral officer a nomination form and voters' declaration form as provided for in this Code and the electoral officer shall provide to that individual a copy of a nomination form and voters' declaration form as soon as practical following that request.
- d. Any voter, non-resident or otherwise, may nominate a candidate for the position of Chief or Councillor as provided for in this Code. Any such nomination must be accompanied by the completed nomination form and declaration form along with the consent of the person so nominated and must include the full legal name, band membership number and signatures of five (5) nominators who are eligible voters and which nomination form must be sent to and received by the electoral officer no later than sixty (60) days prior to the date set for the election. Any nomination form received after that date, will be deemed invalid and the nomination will not be accepted. It is the responsibility of the nominating party, to ensure that their nomination form and other required material is returned to the electoral officer within that period of time. The nomination forms can be returned in any manner including by facsimile, email, regular post or in person.

- e. Following receipt of all nomination forms and immediately following the expiration of the time for the receipt of nominations, the electoral officer shall confirm that all candidates so nominated, are eligible candidates in accordance with the provisions of this Election Code. Any candidate who is nominated and who in the opinion of the electoral officer does not meet the requirements of eligibility, shall immediately be notified that they are not eligible as candidates for the position for which they were nominated and shall be given an opportunity to have the decision of the electoral officer reviewed by the Elections Appeal Committee in accordance of the provisions of Sections 80 through 87 of this Election Code.
- f. Any such review requested, shall be made within five (5) days of the date of the notification of their ineligibility and shall be made in writing specifying the reasons for the requested review and submitted by either personal delivery, or certified mail or facsimile to the address and facsimile number as provided for in the notice of nominations.
- g. Notwithstanding Section 85, the Election Appeal Committee shall review all of the information provided to it and shall render its decision as to the eligibility of the candidate so nominated and shall so advise the candidate no later than forty-five (45) days prior to the date set for the election. The decision of the Election Appeal Committee is final.

- 25. A candidate may withdraw his or her candidacy up to the date set for the close of nominations by submitting a written withdrawal of nomination to the electoral officer.

PART SEVEN- ELIGIBILITY OF CANDIDATES

26. Eligibility for Position of Chief

61. The electoral officer or deputy electoral officer shall attach a note to each ballot rejected which outlines the reason for rejection.
62. Subject to review on recount or on an election appeal, the electoral officer or deputy electoral officer shall take a note of any objections made by any candidate or his agent to any of the ballots found in the ballot box and decide any questions arising out of the objection.
63. The electoral officer or deputy electoral officer shall number objections to ballots raised pursuant to section 61 and place a corresponding number on the back of the ballot paper with the word "allowed" or "disallowed", as the case may be, with his or her initials.
64. Immediately upon completion of the counting of the ballots pursuant to sections 55 through 58 at a voting station other than that considered the principal voting station managed by the electoral officer, the deputy electoral officer shall transmit the results to the electoral officer.
65. After all the ballots for the Chief's position have been counted, the electoral officer shall have the votes recorded and declared that the candidate with the most votes has been elected as Chief.
66. After all the ballots for the Councillors' have been counted, the electoral officer shall have the votes recorded and declare the five (5) candidates with most votes for Dettah and the five (5) candidates with most votes for Ndilo as elected as Councillors.

Tie

67. If it is not possible to determine the successful candidate for either a Chief or Councillor position due to an equal number of votes being cast, the electoral officer shall establish a time for the conduct of a recount and publicly announce this time in the presence of all those present in the voting station. A recount by the electoral officer must take place within 24 hours of that announcement by the electoral officer and be made in the presence of the candidates who wish to attend. At the time established, the electoral officer shall conduct a recount of the valid ballots.

68. If a candidate is not satisfied with the results of a recount, as provided for in the previous section, that candidate can, within 48 hours of the close of the polls ask the Appeal Committee for a final administrative recount.
69. Should, after a further recount, should a tie still exist, then a coin toss shall be used to establish the person elected to that position.
70. Should any changes result from a recount, the electoral officer shall cause to be published at the band offices in both Dettah and Ndilo, the results of that recount.

PART TEN- POST-ELECTION PROCESS

71. After completing the counting of the votes and establishing the successful candidates, the electoral officer shall declare to be elected the candidate for Chief with the highest number of votes and the five candidates for the position of Councillor for Dettah with the highest number of votes and the five candidates for the position of Councillor for Ndilo with the highest number of votes.
72. Following the declaration of the elected candidates, the electoral officer shall complete an election report which shall contain at a minimum the following information:
 - a. the names and number of votes cast for each candidate for each position;
 - b. the number of ballots that were rejected.
73. Within ten (10) days after the completion of the counting of the votes and the declaration of the elected candidates, the electoral officer shall:
 - a. sign and place in a conspicuous location at the band office in Dettah and the band office in Ndilo the election report prepared in accordance with paragraph 71;
 - b. forward a copy of the election report to the Chief Executive Officer;
 - c. make available sufficient copies of her report such that a copy be made available to any elector who desires a copy by picking up the same at the band office in Dettah or the band office in Ndilo.

74. The electoral officer shall cause all nomination papers, ballots, whether rejected or otherwise to be retained for a period of no less than forty-five (45) days from the date on which the election was held, or if an election is appealed for a period no less than forty-five (45) days from the date on which the appeal decision was rendered, after which time the electoral officer shall, unless otherwise directed by Band Council Resolution, destroy them in the presence of at least two (2) witnesses who shall then certify in writing such destruction has taken place and which certification shall be provided to the Chief Executive Officer of the Yellowknives Dene First Nation.

Oath of Office

75. A Chief or Councillor who has been elected, shall within ten (10) days of their declaration being so elected, swear an oath of office as attached to and forming part of this Election Policy/Code.
76. Should by reason of illness or absence, a candidate be unable to swear the oath within the time provided in the previous section, an extension may be granted for a further period of ten (10) days in order to swear the oath of office. Should the person elected as Chief or Councillor fail or be unable to swear the oath within such time provided for or such extension thereof, then the office to which that person was elected, shall be declared as vacant and shall remain vacant until a by-election is called by the Council as provided for in this Election Policy/Code.

Election Appeal and Complaint Process

77. A complaint and appeal committee shall be established by Band Council Resolution, at the same time as the appointment of a Chief Electoral Officer, which committee shall consist of three (3) persons as follows:
- a. an Elder who is also a member of the Elder's Senate;
 - b. a band member who is at least eighteen (18) years of age, is eligible to be a voter and has not run as a candidate in the current or previous election;
 - c. one of the following:
 - i. A previous Chief of the band or if not available, a non-member of the band who has no apparent interest in the results of the election.

- iii. A band member, who is at least eighteen (18) years of age and is eligible to be a voter and has not run as a candidate in the current or previous election as an alternate committee member and can, if necessary, stand in for an existing committee member who by reason of a conflict is unable to take part in the committee's deliberations and decision.

Complaints and Appeal Committee

78. Should for any reason, a vacancy occur by reason of the withdrawal of a member of the Complaint and Appeal Committee, then the council shall appoint an alternate member to take the place of the member so withdrawing and shall wherever possible, appoint a member who has similar qualifications to that of the member withdrawing.
79. The Complaints and Appeal Committee shall supervise and administer, in accordance with the provisions of this Election Code, all election complaints and appeals.

Election Appeals and Complaints

80. A candidate or an elector, may within five (5) days from the date on which the election was held, submit an appeal or complaint to the Complaints and Appeal Committee.
81. An appeal shall only be heard by the Appeal and Complaints Committee for the following reasons:
 - a. that a person declared elected for any office was not qualified to be a candidate; or
 - b. there was a violation of this Election Code in the conduct of the election that effected or could have effected the result of the election; or
82. An appeal or complaint submitted to the Committee must be in writing and set out sufficient facts and material to substantiate the grounds for the appeal, be accompanied by any supporting documentation substantiating the reasons for the appeal.
83. Upon receipt of an election appeal, the Appeal and Complaints Committee shall do the following:

- a. forward a copy of the appeal and all substantiating documentation to the electoral officer and to each candidate who is the subject matter of the appeal.
84. The candidate who is the subject matter of the appeal or the electoral officer may, within seven (7) days of the receipt of the appeal forward to the Appeal and Complaints Committee, a written response to the appeal allegations together with any supporting documentation.
85. The Appeal and Complaints Committee may, if they consider it necessary, conduct such further investigations into the matter as they deem necessary.
86. Within seven (7) days after the receipt of any responses received pursuant to paragraph 83, or if no responses have been received within seven (7) days of forwarding the material to the electoral officer and any affected candidate, and after a review of all the evidence, the Appeal and Complaints Committee shall make its ruling which ruling shall, wherever possible, be by consensus or if no consensus is possible, by majority vote and may do one or all of the following:
- a. decide that the evidence presented was not sufficient to determine that either a violation of the Election Policy/Code had taken place or alternately, that the person declared elected was not qualified to be a candidate and dismiss the appeal accordingly or;
 - b. that the evidence and information gathered allows for a reasonable conclusion that, either a violation of the Election Policy/Code had taken place that might have affected the result of the election or that the person declared elected was not qualified to be a candidate and as a result uphold the appeal by setting aside the election of the candidate who was the subject matter of the appeal.
87. The decision of the Appeal and Complaints Committee made pursuant to this previous section shall be:
- a. forwarded to the person or persons filing the appeal at the address provided by them in the original appeal document;
 - b. posted in the band offices, a record of their decision and the reasons for their decision.
88. The decision of the Appeal and Complaints Committee is final and is not subject to appeal.

PART ELEVEN- PROCESS FOR ADOPTION

89. This Election Policy/Code, shall be adopted and put into force, only after its acceptance by a Band Council Resolution in which seventy-five (75%) per cent of the Band Councillors and Chiefs have voted to accept it.

PART TWELVE- AMENDING FORMULA

90. This Election Policy/Code may be amended from time to time, by a resolution of the band council. Any band council resolution which amends this Election Policy/Code, shall in order to pass, have the approval of at least seventy-five (75%) per cent of the band council including the elected Chiefs.
91. Notice of any proposed amendments to the Election Policy/Code, shall only be considered by council at a special meeting held specifically for that purpose and notification of that special meeting, for the purposes of considering amendments to this Election Policy/Code, shall be posted in the band office in both Dettah and Ndilo in a conspicuous place at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of such special council meeting to be held for the purpose of the amendments to this Election Policy/Code. Any band council meeting held for that purpose, shall be open to the band membership, such that they may attend any meeting of council convened for that purpose.

PART THIRTEEN- BY-ELECTION

92. In the event that the office of Chief becomes vacant, a by-election shall be held if the unexpired term of the vacant office is for a period excepting twelve (12) months. If the unexpired term of the Chief is less than twelve (12) months, there shall be no by-election and council shall elect from amongst their members and acting Chief, who shall fulfill the duties of a Chief for the unexpired term.
93. In the event that the office of councillor becomes vacant, no by-election shall be held and the office or offices of that Councillor for the balance of the unexpired term shall be indicated as vacant and council will operate with a reduced number of councillors.

94. No sitting council member is eligible to be a candidate in a by-election unless he first resigns his or her council position prior to the date for the close of nominations for the by-election.
95. Except as expressly provided otherwise in this Election Policy/Code, the rules and procedures in this Code that apply to elections shall also apply to by-elections.

PART FOURTEEN - REMOVAL OF CHIEFS AND BAND COUNCILLORS FROM ELECTED OFFICE

96. A Chief or Councillor may be removed from office and if so removed, be rendered ineligible to run for office for a period of no less than four (4) years if he or she;

 - f. engages in such other conduct as may be determined by Council to be of such a serious nature that the removal is necessary and appropriate.

Process for Removal

97. Proceedings to remove a Chief or Councillor from the office held by them, may be initiated by:
- a. a petition, signed by at least twenty-five (25%) per cent of all eligible electors of the band who support the removal of that person from the office held by them;
 - b. a majority of Council members passing a band council resolution requesting the removal of that person from the office held by them.
98. On receipt of a Petition or on receipt of the band council resolution referred to in paragraph 97, the Appeal and Complaints Committee previously appointed for the last election shall reconvene and shall:
- a. review any Petition present to verify whether or not the Petition complies with section 96(a), such that it contains the signatures of at least twenty-five (25%) per cent of the eligible electors of the band. If, after its review, the Committee determines that the Petition does not contain at least twenty-five (25%) per cent of the signatures of all eligible electors of the band, the Appeal and Complaints Committee shall dismiss the Petition and shall post in a conspicuous place in the band office for both Dettah and Ndilo notice of that fact or;
 - b. if satisfied that the Petition contains the signatures of at least twenty-five (25%) per cent of all eligible electors of the band; do the following:
 - i. schedule the review hearing, which will take place within twenty (20) days from the date on which the Petition was submitted to the Appeal and Complaints Committee;
 - c. in a case where the Appeal and Complaints Committee schedules a hearing under the previous section; the Appeal and Complaints Committee shall deliver a written notice of the date of the hearing to band council, the petitioner initiating the petition, any effected council member or Chief and the administration. The written notice described in this section shall set out:
 - i. the reason for the hearing;

- ii. the date, time and location of the hearing;
 - iii. a statement outlining that the petitioner, any member of council or the council member who is the subject of the Petition for removal may, at the hearing, make a presentation at the hearing which may include the presentation of documents and any testimony of any witnesses;
- d. five (5) days following the date on which the hearing is held, the Appeal and Complaints Committee shall rule either:
 - i. that the Petition shall be allowed to stand and declare the council position of the member of council who was the subject matter of the Petition to be vacant; or
 - ii. that the Petition is dismissed;
- e. the Appeal and Complaints Committee shall send or deliver a written notice of the ruling made under this section to council, the petitioner, the administration and the council member who is the subject matter of the Petition for removal.
- f. the decision of the Appeal and Complaints Committee made under subsection (d) is final and binding upon all the parties.
- g. if the council position is declared vacant under subsection (d) , the Chief or councillor removed from office shall be disqualified from being a candidate for four (4) years commencing on the date of the Appeal and Complaints Committee ruling.

PART FIFTEEN- CURATIVE PROVISIONS

- 99. If it is shown to the satisfaction of the Chief Electoral Officer that the election was conducted substantially in accordance with this Election Code and that an irregularity, failure, non-compliance or mistake did not materially affect the result of the election, then the election is not void by reason of:
 - a. the late distribution or not receipt of the election announcement by one or more electors;

- b. an irregularity on the part of an election officer during the election;
- c. an irregularity or omission in the preparation of the Elector's List;
- d. any mistake in the procedure or use of the prescribed forms in an election; or
- e. any inconsistency between sections in this Election Code.
