EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Do you want to be part of a diverse group of team members who take pride in moving their community forward? If you're wanting to be part of change, then come and work with one of Northwest Territories progressive First Nations and finish each day knowing you have made a difference! The Yellowknives Dene First Nation is all about community growth and advancement, while practicing its traditions and customs in the workplace. We are looking for an experienced manager who is self-driven, analytical, team oriented with a positive attitude and who possess the education, knowledge and skills to fill this challenging and rewarding role of:

Director, Environment

Under the authority of the YKDFN Chief and Council Government and reporting to the Chief Executive Officer, the Director will provide effective and efficient operation in areas of natural resources, regulatory, and environment monitoring for all aspects of the YKDFN Environment Division. The position will also be responsible to lead the YKDFN Strategic Plans pertaining to environment management.

The ideal candidate for this position will have completed post-secondary education or degree in the field of Environmental Science, Resource Management, or related disciplines, with a minimum of 4 years work experience; or equivalent combination of education with a minimum of 6 years' experience in a senior management position with relevant training will be considered. The candidate must be able to work with minimal supervision and interact with individuals of all levels in a friendly yet professional manner.

A valid Class 5 driver's license and private vehicle is required. The ability to speak a Dene language, knowledge and/or experience with cultural history and customs of the Wiiliideh people and previous experience working with First Nations organizations are all definite assets.

A detailed Job Description for this position is available upon request.

The Yellowknives Dene First Nation offers a competitive wage with excellent comprehensive group insurance coverage and benefits, along with a fun work environment with exceptional diverse cultural oriented people.
